Seventh-day Adventist Church
Pastor Carpenter's sermon topic for Sabbath, July 20, was 'The Judgement Hour Message' Key texts — Rev. 14:6 —12 verses 6 and 7 reads thus — 'And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred and tongue, and people.' 'Saying with a loud voice, Fear God and grve glory to him; for the hour of his judgement is come: and worship him that made heaven and earth, and the sea and the fountains of waters.'

The true understanding of these life and death messages said Pastor Carpenter is of vital importance to everyone in this day and time of earth's history. The destiny of souls hangs upon the manner in which they are received. We must know and understand them for the hour of his judgement is come.'

Verse 14, John says 'And I looked and behold a white cloud and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle'. Verse 15 'And another angel come out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle for the time is come for thee to reap for the harvest of the earth is ripe.' Verse 16 'And he tha; sat upon the cloud thrust in his sickle upon the earth and the earth was reoped.' Verse 19 —'And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.'

The most fearful threatening and the most solemn messages of warnings of all ages, are heard in these three angels messeges' the pastor said. May we all read them.

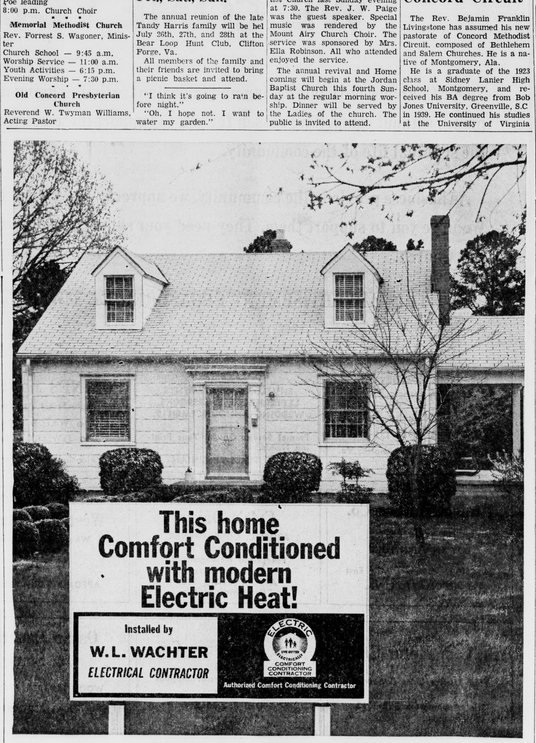
Final Plans Completed For Piedmont Youth Exposition

Final plans for the Piedmont Youth Exposition were completed in a special planning meeting held at the Carver High School last Monday, July 22 at 10 a.m. The chairman, Farm agent M. C. Harding presided over the women's section. The following arrangements were set: 1. To hold the affair at the Lynchburg Livestock Market on Thursday, August 8 from 9:30 to 4:00 p.m. 2. To give a plaque to the county that has the largest number of exhibits and exercises. 3. To sponsor a talent show during the period of viewing the home making exhibits. 4. Appointment of the following committees: Sales and consession; Stands and evaluation, Entry, Classification and publicity. The meeting closed after remarks from Mr. Ross Newsome, State agent of the Virginia Agricultural Extension Service.

An interesting service was held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning and Sunday evening. The Rev. J. W. Paige was in charge of the morning service and the Rev. Everette Berryman was in charge of the 7:30 service. The Junior Choir rendered music at the morning service and the Salubur Spring Men's choir rendered music at the evening service Deacon J. W. King was the sponsor of the evening program.

A special evening service was held at the Pleasant Land Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 7:30. The Rev. J. W. Paige was in charge. Pleasant Land Baptist Church rendered music at the evening service and the Choir. The service was sponsored by Mrs. Ella Robinson. All who attended enjoyed the service.

The annual revival and Home coming will begin at the Jordan Baptist Church this fourth Sunday at the regular morning worship. Dinner will be served by the Ladies of the church. The public is invited to attend.



This home Comfort Conditioned with modern Electric Heat!

Authorized Comfort Conditioning Contractor

SIGN OF THE TIMES

...BECAUSE IT NOW COSTS LESS TO MODERNIZE WITH QUIET, SPACE-SAVING ELECTRIC HEAT

Here's a real life case. While modernizing their five-room-and-bath home in Richmond, Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Carr replaced their old heating system with electric baseboards. The installed cost of the baseboards, including a new 150-ampere electric entrance was only $674. And VEPCO paid $125 of that! So their net cost for the supreme comfort of quiet, space-saving electric heat was actually less than an automatic furnace alone. And they're rid of furnace service costs for keeps. Best of all, with a total yearly cost of only $125.17, their heating electricity is running well below the $132 estimate. So, if you're planning to modernize your heating system, go really modern with all-electric heat.

Ask VEPCO for an Authorized Comfort Conditioning Contractor near you. He'll gladly give you a free installation estimate and show you how to qualify for VEPCO's special offer of $125 SAVING ON ELECTRIC HEAT INSTALLATION!

Rev. Livingston New Pastor Of Concord Circuit

The Rev. Bejamin Franklin Livingstone has assumed his new pastorate of Concord Methodist Circuit, composed of Bethlehem and Salem Churches. He is a native of Montgomery, Ala.

He is a graduate of the 1923 class at Sidney Lanier High School, Montgomery, and received his BA degree from Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C in 1939. He continued his studies at the University of Virginia where he graduated with a collegiate professional teacher's certificate, majoring in English and social studies.

On April 16, 1946, Livingstone was licensed as a minister by the Concord Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church U.S., at Statesville, N.C. He was ordained by the same Presbytery at Siloam Presbyterian Church, old Fort, Siloam and Landis Memorial Churches, and Cornelius, N.C., Presbyterian Church.

He was pastor at Fayetteville, Tenn., from 1952 to 55. His first ministry in Virginia was a field of two churches of the First Presbytery, Timberville and Bank Plains, just prior to his recent affiliation with the Virginia Methodist Conference.

Preceding his ministerial service, he was active in related church work as a representative of the American Sunday School Union; missionary activity at McCook, Neb.; North Wilkesboro, N. C., Greely, Col. and Dalton, Ga.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Mary Wooten Jamerson by her husband, children, and grandchildren.
Our granny, our mother, and a wife so true,
We ever years ago to a life anew,
Our Saviour called her to his blessed land,
For she seeked him and served him and clung to his hand.
She cared for her family each day of the year,
Her husband, and children, and grandchildren dear,
We cherish her memory and honor her ways,
Her example is ours for the rest of our days.
No one can replace her, none ever will,
Her beautiful face, we can see it still,
And know that she smiles on us hour by hour
And we'll join her someday in that land so fair,
We will rejoice on that day with voices clear,
For her presence then will vanish each tear,
So her family each in a way of their own,
Know God is with her preparing our home.
Author J.M.V.
7-25-1t

In memory of Mrs. Frances Jamerson Woodson by her father, sisters and brothers, neices and nephews.
She was our sister and an aunt so kind,
A daughter as dear as you'll ever find,
She honored her family each passing day,
And cared for them in her loving way.
Her voice and laughter was music so clear,
As we heard them resound within our ear,
We love her, her matchless face that smiled,
As she lived among us for a while.
Two sons and two daughters she brought to this earth,
And filled their lives with love, laughter, and mirth,
They long for her presence and know she is near
As she was once before to dry every tear.
Four years have gone by since she was here,
We dream of her still and feel her near.
A glad reunion someday there will be,
We'll all be together and cares all flee.

Brenda Bryant Attends Camp

Brenda Bryant, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Bryant of Route 1, Appomattox, presently is attending a three-week session at the Camp Easter Seal Summer Treatment Center near New Castle, Va.

She is one of the 113 children from all areas of Virginia who are attending the camp for the second session (ending July 27) of the nine - week summer program which is sponsored by the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Receiving speech therapy, Brenda also attended the first camping session.

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club helped to sponsor her stay at the center.

Besides the therapy program, Camp Easter Seal features all of the typical activities of fun and special interest to children, including swimming, fishing, canoeing, pony riding, arts and crafts, sports especially adapted to handicaps of participants, and many other exciting and interesting events.

Toys Given To Sunday School

Thirty hand made animals, plus a wooden wagon to haul them were presented to the Appomattox Court House Presbyterian Church by Carl Phippe, of Lynchburg. The colorful figures are cut from high quality wood and enameled in bright colors. Horses, colts, a string of elephants — even a penquin — are included in the collection.

OBITUARIES

Ernest F. Smith
SPOUT SPRING — Ernest Forest Smith, 39, of Rt. 1, Spout Spring, a retired civil engineer for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Co., died Wednesday, July 17, at 3:59 a.m. at his home after a two - week illness.

Born in Marshall, Mich., he was the son of the late Myron A. and Carrie Smith. He was a member of Salem Methodist Church in Spout Spring.

He was a graduate of Michigan State University.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Georgia A. Schindler, of Spout Spring, and Mrs. Walter Powell, of Richmond, a cousin, a grandchild and a great grandchild.

Services were conducted Saturday at Whitten Funeral Home by the Rev. B.F. Livingstone and the Rev. M. G. Stimpson. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery in Richmond. Pallbearers were Herbert Shirey, George A. Shirey, Norman H. Jones, Ernest Layne, Walter Powell and Dan Thomas.

Mrs. Bigoney's Funeral
A private funeral service for Mrs. Minna Meinke Bigoney was conducted Saturday afternoon in Whitten Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Robert Withers.

Local Man Owns 163-Year Old Newspaper

R. A. Glenn, correspondent for the TIMES - VIRGINIAN, and a retired businessman, is now a newspaper last week that George has an historic 163 year - old edition of the Ulster County, N. Y. Gazette which give an account of the funeral of George Hooper, of Hutchinson, Kan., Washington.

That's fairly interesting, says Glenn, but even more so because he has one exactly like it — inherited by Mrs. Glenn from her grandfather, Chauncey Randall. Chauncey Randall was a homesteader to Kansas and took a deed signed by President Hayes with him, along with the old newspaper and other possessions when he moved from Vermont to the West.

Other relics prized by R. A. Glenn are two dresses over 200 years old and an Indian spoon made of horn given to Chauncey Randall many years ago.
